DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

3. Claims 26-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nagate et al. JP 2002-151571.

Nagate et al. Teach the claimed invention as shown on the attached marked up drawing sheets 7 and 8. Nagate et al. Fail to teach the specifics of the location of his fan/air supply. Nagate et al does show an air supply at 23 in figure 5. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to enclose the air supply within the same housing as the filter for the purpose of making the unit more portable and requiring less space. Although Nagate et al. does not show any particulars of his air supply, it may even be in the same housing as claimed.

4. Claim 26 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Adam et al. USP 6,676,365.

Adam et al. Teach the claimed invention as shown on the attached marked up drawing figure 4A. Adam et al. Fail to teach the specifics of the location of his fan/air supply. Adam et al does show an air supply at 414 in figure 4B. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to enclose the air supply within the same housing as the filter for the purpose of making the unit more portable and requiring less space. Although Adam et al. does not show any particulars of his air supply, it may even be in the same housing as claimed.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-3, 5, 10, 14-19, and 21-25 are allowed.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 26-28 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Art Unit: 3651

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

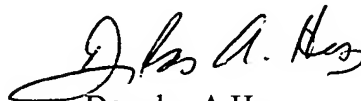

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
